circumstance Related By Stephen Grellette after a Voyage to Europe of a man now Residing in the South of France. his Name forgotten The man appears to be a Native of Sweden and some years since had Occasion to go from one Port to another on Business and when he came to the Place from whence he Expected to sail the Vessel was gone But on inquiry Found a fishing Boate going that way in which he Embarked and when they had got to see the Boatmen observing he had Several Trunks concluded he must be Rich and therefore would Throw him overboard. this he heard them Express among themselves. which gave him a very Unpleasant Sensation. Being among Such men and no way to Escape he however took Occasion to open one of his trunks which contained a Number of Books which they seeing said one to another. it is not worth while to Throw him overboard as we do not want Books

Then asking him whether he was a Priest he not knowing what Better to Do said he was at which they appeared Pleased and said they Would have a Sermon the Next Day it being Sunday as they called it all this however had a tendency to increase the anxiety and Distress of his mind. Believing himself to be as incapable of Such an Undertaking as it was possible for any man to be for he knew but little about the Scriptures neither did he Believe in them nor did he Believe in any his case now appeared desperate indeed Breach he must and knew Nothing about it if he Refused he Expected Death would be his Portion and if he Undertook and did not Please them it would be the same in this deplorable Situation he Passed the Night Not having Power to stay or settle his mind on any thing to offer to the People and to call on a god he had thought and Believed inaccessible was altogether vain and could Not devise any way whereby he might hope to be saved when morning came he arose and walked to and fro still shut up in dark Distress striving with all his might to collect something But could not even one Sentence well the time appointed came for Verily there is a God that indgeth in the earth With these words he arose and delivered them and then some other Pertinent matter Presented and soon from Little to more unto his Understanding became open and his heart enlarged in a manner wonderful to himself to treat on Subjects suiting their conditions Such as the Excellent Rewards of the Righteous the just indgments of god awaiting

The wicked the Necessity of Repentance and amendment of Life the universality of the Love of God to the Children of men which had such a Powerful effect on the minds of those Poor wretched wretches that they were exceedingly broken into tenderness and tears weeping to such a degree that the floor was wet with tears and he was No less astonished at the unbounded goodness Power and Love of an Almighty Creator in thus interfering for the saving both his Natural and Spiritual Life and might well exclaim that it was the Lords Doings and marvellous in his eyes and under an awful Sense thereof his heart became filled with such thankful

Acknowledgments that were beyond the Power of Language to convey. Now what a marvellous Change was Brought about by Divine interposition that he that a Little before Disbelieved in an intercourse and Communion Between god almighty and the Soul of man Became an humble Believer in and happy Partaker of the blessed effect on the human mind and they who so lately meditated his Death

Now all Love and good will to each other after the meeting ended the Poor creatures were very Loving and affectionate willing to show him all the kindness in their Power and Next Day fitted out one of their Vessels and carried him where he wished to go and he from that time became and continued to be an entire changed man from Sentiments of infidelity to a Sincere believer in the efficacy and Power of the holy Unchangeable

Truth as it is in Jesus Christ

One Night in my Sleep I thought that Olive And I was setting in the Kitchen I Looked to the window and saw a very bright light at the South East Corner of the house I opened the door and stept out and Looked to the corner of the house and just as I Looked to the corner of the house there appeared a Little hump Backed Negro with a very Broad Brimed hat on I speak to Olive to come to the Door and see what a filthy ugly Looking creature there was at the corner of the house I then went in and set Down and soon after I set Down the Light appeared very bright in the Kitchen which made me feel a Little timmed we got up and went into the great Room and soon after we set Down the Light appeared as bright as it Did in the Kitchen I then felt a Little more timmed we then both got up and

There is a Reciprocal Crucifixion Which I should Desire and Seek after, first, that the world may be Crucified unto me, and Secondly; that I may be Crucified unto the World, This is a Noble
 Disentanglement from the world, to Break the Commission and Cut asunder the Bands between two Persons 1749 By Discount upon Mitchel Book 15 3

Of the Closest Friendship, Sameness of Sentiment, and oneness of interest, it is not enough that one Party be Crucified, for the other may still have affection and feelings after the Mangled, though once amiable Companions: but when both are Crucified, all Bonds are Broken, and all ties are eternally Dissolved, when one becomes Noxious to Society, an enemy to Common Wealth, and a Rebel against iust authority, then he merits such an ignominious Death as Crucifixion he that would win heaven must Crucify the world, for while the world lives in the affections, it will always roll itself between the soul and heaven, Now what a mighty mountain, what a steep ascent is this, the sad experience of unhappy thousands can tell, who never could climb over the terrestrial globe to the heavenly Land, but intoxicated with Pleasures, choaked with Care, and crushed with the ponderous mass, sink down to endless woe, again as a Crucified man, whose extremities are torn through, and whose body is besmeared with blood, and his countenance disfigured in death, is a very moving spectacle to every feeling beholder to the world,

Finally, I Shall be an immense gainer by this Double Crucifixion, for as no man will heave up human Skull, bones, and Interfying Care for a Treasure, so the world thus Crucified, and all its Vanities, shall be the Object of my Deepest Contempt and Loathing, while things Spiritual, heavenly, and Divine, shall share my whole esteem, and enrich my Soul for eternity itself.

Here I must observe that if the most skilful Pilot cannot without the Compass Sail from England to the Indies so The heathen for all the Blaze of Natural Parts for all Their Refined manners or Excellent morals yet wanting
 The word of god the Volume of inspiration can never reach The Shore of happiness for how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard and how shall they hear without a Preacher and how shall they Preach except they be sent. Again like the spiritual mariner I should Take my altitude and see what length I have run what Progress I have made in my course heavenward Now this is known by the height of the Sun of righteousness in my sky if he enlighten the whole inner man shine into my heart irradiate every power of mind cover me with his healing beams fill my ravished eye engage my attention and excite me daily to adore and bask beneath my Saviours gracious rays Surely I am well on to the meridian well on to the land of Rest again I should steer the helm by the compass of divine truth guard against running out of my latitude But be attentive to my life according to thy word

Happiness of The Saints

To Escape my Sorrow, and Triumph in the midst of Grief. Let me suppose futurity Present, and Eternity at hand. Which may Very Soon, But must ere Long, Be the Case, may I not then, With the eye of all Triumphant faith, Think I see myself Walking with my well Beloved in white along the fields of glory.
and my whole Soul going out to him in a manner it Never could Before, While floods of glory from his Reconciled face overflow me, and the Smile of his amiable Countenance entrances my Soul for ever While I join the hosannas of the higher house, the eternal hallelujahs, and begin the Song which none can learn but the Chosen Number,

The Sealed ones, with what Transport do I mingle with the hosts of god, and, to my extreme comfort, fear not one sinner in the heavenly company, or any thing expressed against the maiesty of the most high, where all the heavenly multitudes, Transforming in his beams, kindling in his flames, and Drinking at his ecstasie Rivers, are happy Beyond Conception. Such is the felicity the Saints shall enter into, yea, in a manner, are entered into already.
So Short is the interval Between now and then, this Present and that future State, that their glory is as if were Begun, Faith and hope entering Like an anchor within the Vail, the Saints of god Rise at one Step from this Vale of Tears, to the hill of god, to the mount of Communion, Now, why should the Noise of the Rabble or Up roar of the Street, Trouble me, when I am Entering the Very Door of my everlasting habitation and Shall soon be eternally out of the Reach of their Confusion and murmurs, henceforth, Let the Near Prospect of that eternal Triumph Blunt my Present grief, Scatter my Troubles, and Spread Serenity in my breast,

I am ever guilty of some folly, some unaccountable folly, and either my faith condemns my fears, or my fears accuse my guide, in the Shadow, in the Darknefs of Death, where, for all my friends, where, for the whole world, I must walk alone, why should I Distrust him in the high way of Life, where Thousands walk with me, dare I Commit the Concerns of my Soul to him and hope for Salvation in his Name, yet Distrust him with the Cares of my Present Life, nor hope for its Necessaries in his Providence, Can I Venture my Soul into his hand, and think it safe through the intricate mazes of an Eternal Duration, yet Doubt if I may Depend on his Promise and Providence Through the few Windings of a transitory Life, or will god Care for the Soul, But Cast off the Body, will he feed the Raven, Deck the Lily, But Starve the Saint, will he give of the good things of this Life, even to Superfluity, faith of folly, if I may safely trust to god as my guardian and

A Dreame of Sphraim Clook

On the 19 of ye 5 m at Night

Being in Bed a bough 11 o'clock at night My thoughts Rambling to and fro in my sleep and as I thought I was going over the Pond With Edmund and Bolton when a Terrible Tempest a Rose with such a Sea as I scarce Ever saw with much a Doo we Landed as soon as we Landed I heard Andrews wife crying with a loud voice O you have tormente my Devil O you have tormente my Devil was at her cry we stood stil a while and while we stood I saw several horses coming towards us when at the sight of them we went into Edmunds house I went in Jacob Taber I was sitting in the Room
 I stepped forward and shook hands with him
 And asked him how he did he said he was well But he thought I was not well in a spiritual sense he being sensibly effected with it which struck me very much which I confessed been in a Discouraged State for some time and while we were talking There came in Moses Sleeper Hannah Sleeper John Robertson and two woman that I did not know I arose and offered my hand to Moses but he refused to shake hands with me and so did Hannah Likewise after they Both had refused to shake hands Moses asked me what I had been about if I had not done That which was forbidden I confessed I could not say but I had he said he had a command with a message to me that there was more Grounds for hope of Dows wife then for me That there was a message to be Delivered to me by one of them they all looking very Pitiful at one after a while the time was expired that the message must be Delivered I rose and went into the other room and John Robertson followed me I then offered him my hand and he shook hands with me when we went in Edmund was there a reading while we were getting ready to set down Edmund went out John set down first in a great Chair and ordered me to set down Between his knees in the same Chair then he Reached forth his hand and took a wooding plate and put on my head and rested his Chin on it

I set with great Resignation of mind after a short time he said I have dug thy grave in a hollow Place and set at the End thereof the hearing of this gave me a very great Shock he further said I will put thee off within these eighteen years or two thirds of that time after that we went into the Room where the others were they asked me if what he had delivered was the truth I told them I thought it varied a little John said it was not pronounced whether eighteen or two thirds of that time I then kneeling down was drawn forth in Prayer to the God of truth earnestly Praying for

On the 17 of the 5^m 1827 at Night being in bed in my Sleep I was Brought into a very Low humble State of mind and in that State I was Drawn fourth in Prayer and at the close of my Prayer it was said unto me all thy sins are forgiven the hearing of that Caused such a flow of Joy that I thought I had never Experienced the like Before and the Next Day while my hands were implied about there Lawfull Paining tears flowed from my Eyes and the Next Night in my Sleep it was said unto me since all thy sins are forgiven be mercifull to Others and the Next Night I expected to have a commands to appear before the Bar but I never had until the Seventh Day of the first month 1830 that Night I dreamed there was a man came to me and Told me I must Die I Told him I knew I must die and the whole Race of mankind he said he knew that the whole Race of mankind must Die but he Told me that I must Die some time last he had dreamt of a design to destroy himself and for that purpose purchased a brace of pistols but had not courage to load them till that evening which he then did and put them in his bosom mounting his horse intending to go to a field at some distance and there put an end to his existence but as he rode along observing people going into the barn curiosity led him to dismount to see for what purpose they were

The following account was transmitted from a friend in a letter of England some time ago David Sand from North a morris in saying there a story after attending a quarterly meeting of Friends felt his mind deeply impressed to have a public meeting but being rather late in the evening friends that were with him made some objection and proposed it being held next morning David said that would not do and he believed if only half a dozen come together then he should be clear notice was accordingly given and a house prepared for the purpose soon after the meeting assembled together David stood up and said he believed that meeting was appointed for one person that his sense of feeling and the impression made on his mind he was of the opinion that some one in that assembly was on the point of suicide and had proposed a bout his horse with that he therefore earnestly entreated him to consider better of it return home and destroy his weapon Next morning a young man of a very disreputable character waited on David and informed him that he was the very person to whom he alluded the night before that for

On the 25 of the 12 m. 1823 at Night in my Sleep I thought that Olive and I was down to the Pond standing on the water when I Looked round upon her. She was up to her Chin in water standing on a Large Log that lay at the Bottom which I could see very plain She asked me if I thought that She was cold I told her that if I was as deep in water as She was I thought I should be very cold She said She was as warm as ever She was the further she went the smaller the light appeared at last it was not to be seen and I went on some way further and could see nothing of it so I returned to the shore and came up to the house and after I got up

The Flower Girl Pray Buy a Nose-gay of a Poor orphan And a female voice in a plaintive tone as I was passing by Hay Market I turned hastily and beheld a girl of 14 whose Trappings though ragged was clean and her form such as a Painter might have taken for a Venus her Neck without covering was of the purest white and her features though regularly beautiful were interesting and set off by a transparent complexion her eyes dark and intelligent wear shaded by loose ringlets of Raven black and shed their

As to the Soul they Believe it to be Both immortal and immaterial That During the Pangs of Death it flutters about the Lips and that it ascends and is Eaten by the Deity. That it Continues in that State for some time after which it takes its Passage to a certain Place Destined to Receive the Souls of men and has Existence in Eternal Night or Rather in a Kind of Dawn or twilight they Expect no Permanent Punishment hereafter for Crimes committed upon earth the Souls of good and bad men being indiscriminately

	After sickness	31 5 -

What Shall I Render unto the Lord for all his Kindness unto me, The sorrows of Death compassed me about, the Pains of the grave took hold on me, my feeble joints were made to smite together, Disease attached every Part, and Rapidly Prevailed, mine eyes, with Languid Looks, spoke forth mine inward trouble, my throbbing heart spread sense of Pain through every member, and Vexing Dreams disturbed my Nights Repose, But what was all this to that Confusion my Sympathizing Soul was in, no Composure there, I could not meditate with Calmness on my final Change, that seemed to await me. Nor could I inquire aright into the Case of my Soul, that I thought would soon be Dislodged this Body, and Brought Before the bar of God, hence I Learn, that health is the Proper time to Prepare for Sickness, Death, eternity, the new, the Spiritual Life, is too Late in Beginning, when The Lamp of Natural Life is about to be Blown out, yet The men of the world Postpone the most momentous Business to their Last moments, O my Soul, Come not thou into their assembly, with their Procrastination, mine honour, be not thou united, But what Shall I Render to the Lord for Adding to my Days, I yet live, yea, and am well, the Canopy of the heavens might have Been converted into the Crumbling Clouds, or covering worms, the Light of the world into the Shadow of Death, and time into eternity, and my Broken strains of Praise into perpetual Silence, for the Living only

The Spirit of Prayer is as a state of the heart, which is become the governing Principle of the Soul's Life, and if it is a living state of the heart must it not have its Life in itself, independent of every outward time, and occasion, and yet must it not at the same time, be that alone which disposes, and fits the heart to receive and delight in hours, and times, and occasions of Prayer.

No wonder that in the world I did not think more of Salvation, and the work of Redemption, for I was in darkness, and Tabernacled in clay. But since I have entered within the veil, and come into the presence of God himself, the mystery is revealed, and my enlarged powers of mind are oppressed with wonder and amazement. I once thought that I was something, but since arrived into the more immediate presence of the King of Kings. I see I am very nothing, a mere man of clay. Now, had the shining Seraphims left their sparkling seats and rapturous songs, to lead such emmits through the howling wilderness it would have been a wonder. But for him, at whose throne the Prostrate angels fall, and on whose glory gables cannot look, the fathers fellows. the god of angels, the fountain of happiness, and the King of Kings, he deigned to come, to clothe himself with

The houn and hare Both had a Race it wou make you laugh to hear the Chase
 The hare full forty jumps did run Before the houn her Race begun
 But when the houn began her race
 She went with somuch quicker Pace That 3 times jumping Equal were With 5 times jumping of the hare But one thing more I have to tell The hare Performed her Part so well That 7 times she quit the ground in 5 times quitting of the houn
 Now how many times the houn must jump
 To Catch the hare fast by the Rump

 Immortal Beauties Shine
 Its Sweet Refreshing Fragrance throws Its Origion Divinest, and fair Oh how Blooming this and fair Oh may my happy Breast
 This Lovely Rose forever wear
 And be Supremely Blest.

On ye 28. of y^e 3^d m^o 1783 at night Comeing home from my Sugar Camp very weary But my thoughts that night in my Sleep Returning again to my Camp and as I thought Bolton was there atairing my Camp to Pieces To save my Camp I got hold of his hand and Rung it very hard and when I let go of his hand he run for home and I after him when I got up with him I threw him Down and Caught him by the throat and held him very hard for some time till Jonathan come to me then I let him go and followed him & Beet him on the head till he bleed very much then I left ^{him} & he went home and soon After his father Come Down very angry Wanted to fight with me I told him it was for Lying I beet him at Last we both Got very angry I told him I knew I was Not fit to Die if I was I should be very Willing with that I turned from him feeling Such horror for my anger that I knew not Which way to go and as I turned Round I saw A Large Building that appeared very beautiful It haveing such a beautiful appearance That I traveled up to it and went ^{into} the Porch as soon as I was in I heard the Sweetest musick that ever I heard in my Life when I went into the Porch I had My own Flute in my mouth and tryed to Play the tune with it but the more I tryed
The more it Choked me after a while I hald it out of my mouth & had some Like a Stick in my hand & went into a Large Squair Room that Exceeded all For Brightness that ever I saw it was So Bright that it Darzeled my eyes the musick I heard before was then ^{bright} over my head & hearing the tune so Plain that I soon Larned it and thought I had heard of heavenly musick but never heard it Before being so Reioyced that I Leapt from The floor to the wall I felt so Light that I thought I could fly when the musick was Dun I stood still and looking up I saw a man comeing Down face forema I saw Nothing but his face till he had Got Down to the floor then he had the Shapes of a handsome man with a Lig Colerd Coat & Jacket and a Red Colerd Pier of breaches he Sat Down in a Chair
The opperset side of the Room I saw no of the Chair till he Sat Down soon he Sat Down I heard some People to the house the musick

55 Say that was up a Loft Dont Let them Till they break the Shingles & when they Knocked the Door was opened to them and There come in three men two of them bow Before the man that sat in the Chair & as They bowed they haught and spit the third Sat Down without bowing and said no Regard To the man in the Chair but Fixed his eyes Upon me the man in the Chair beckening
To him that Did not bow at last the man Got up and come to him that Did not bow And turnd him round then ^{he} bowed haught and Spit but as he bowed his face was black &
When he had spit his face was white then We all stood up and shook hands together
Then the man said we shall understand All in one Language then I Replied
We shall then we all went into another Room then one of the three asked us
They must Doo when they got up a Loft
The man told him he must not tell What they must Doo there Signifying that If Obediance kept Pace with Knowledge it was Enough then I observed one of the three Men to have a Shining shell of Sugar His hand he eat some of it and put the Rest into his Pocket and I had a bag in my hand with a Little Sugar in it Seeing him put his into his Pocket I gave mine to the man that come Down from A Loft and he gave me for for it then

Sat Down and as I saw 22 Pumpion Shells of Sugar Standing in The Room after the man had put The bag he come and Sat Down by me And asked me how much I had made I Told him a bout 300 weight he asked If it was 600 I Told him no a bout 300
Well Says he it has been a fine day For it then he asked me if I could give A Pair of breeches for him I Told him I had nothing to give them with he He had all things ready & in order
He held out of his Pocket a Squair Watch with the hands Standing in Corner of it and he wound her up
The Sun and getting Ready to hall His Breeches for me to Line I awoke Out of my Sleep and behold it was A Dream

my saying so I do not on my own and only what was all in rags
